Rayonier awards grants to 34 nonprofit organizations in the Pacific Northwest.

WILDLIGHT, Florida – Rayonier awarded $55,500 to 34 local nonprofit organizations to help address key community needs in Oregon and Washington. Recipients of the award were recognized individually this year. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, the annual special awards breakfasts were canceled.

The recipients will use the funds to help meet a range of needs in communities in Oregon and Washington, including civic and cultural, educational, environmental, natural resources and health and human services programs.

Virtual environmental science education, career learning opportunities for students at risk, literacy programs for both kids and adults, are some examples of the programs that the Rayonier Community Fund is supporting.

“These organizations provide vital support to kids, families and those in need across our communities” said Bill Monahan, Director, Western Forest Resources.

Altogether, in 2020 Rayonier, through the Rayonier Community Fund, plans to grant close to $310,000 across the United States. Approximately, 20% of those funds will be distributed in communities in Oregon and Washington to the following organizations:
